171 Children Receive Gifts at Lions Christmas Party

Since the 1930s, the Fairmont Lions Club has been providing toys and other Christmas gifts at the Lions Christmas Party for Children, held each year at the Union Rescue Mission. On December 6th, 171 children (the most in recent years) received toys, clothing items and snacks. Because of the large number of families being served, they came in shifts to collect their gifts. According to Virginia Gallion, who spearheaded the event, Lions provided 287 hours of service in addition to 193 hours from non-Lions — a total of 480 volunteer hours.

Pierpont Community and Technical College volunteers and volunteers from a sorority at WVU provided help as did other volunteers. The Lions club and club members provided a total of $1,160 to purchase gifts.

For the second consecutive year, Grace Lutheran Church collected toys for the Christmas party. This toy collection was done in memory of Lion Leroy Humberston.

Midtown Leo gift trees were stationed at various businesses to collect gifts for the party, with a goal of providing gifts for 158 children. In November, members of the Midtown Leo Club gathered at Middletown Commons to wrap gifts.

Lions Float in 2026 Rose Parade

Lions International rang in 2026 with a vibrant celebration of service and unity during the 137th Rose Parade presented by Honda. This year's theme, "The Magic in Teamwork," perfectly captured the spirit that drives Lions and Leos around the world as they come together to make a difference through humanitarian service. The float won the "Tournament Volunteer Award."

More than a float, "In Harmony We Serve" was a living tribute to the countless moments when Lions bring comfort, hope and strength to communities everywhere. The float displayed four lions representing collaboration and thousands of flowers standing for kindness and service of 1.4 million members in more than 50,000 clubs.

Riding on the float were International President A.P. Singh, Sangeeta Jatia, Past International Director, Isbella Flores, 2025 Lion Student Speaker Contest Winner and Jaiden Ford, MD4 2025 Leo of the Year Honoree.

Club Dues for January Are Due

The Fairmont Lions Club must pay Lions International and District 29L dues from the collection of dues from club members.
